Natural Sciences @Vytautas
Magnus University

Vytautas Magnus University (VMU), established in 1922, is one of the most liberal and modern universities in Lithuania (Kaunas). The university follows liberal study (artes liberales) policy, which combines the deep traditions of a classical university with an innovative treatment of study programs and science letting students themselves to plan their studies. Jūratė Žaltauskaitė, assoc. prof. in the department of Environmental Sciences, will introduce undergraduate and postgraduate studies at VMU and research in the Faculty of Natural sciences.
